RESTAURANT

In June of 1961, Buck and Ginny Warn, with an eight hundred dollar loan and a lot of courage, embarked on a life changing dream. They opened a small twenty seat restaurant on the side of their house in Frostburg. The tiny restaurant was named the Hen House. Eventually it took up their entire home. We out grew our Frostburg location, so in 1979 we moved to our present location and opened up the Hen House West. In the spring of 2006 a devastating fire destroyed our cherished old home, but not the dream. Our new home is the latest incarnation of that dream.

Relax and enjoy your time with us.

—Bill & Theresa, Gary & Brenda, and the entire Warn family welcomes you.
